INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS:

Deputy Shannon Knight, #[redacted] was interviewed on July 3, 2008 at 2337 hours, by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jack Ramirez and Irma Chevalier. The interview was conducted at the Lancaster Sheriff's Station. Deputy Knight agreed to be interviewed without representation, and the interview was digitally recorded for review. The following is a summary of Deputy Shannon's view of the incident.

Deputy Knight said on the indicated date and time he was working Unit 113 EM's. He said he responded to the location in regards to a large fight call and assistance request from Unit 111, Deputy [redacted] He said as he arrived, he saw a crowd of approximately 40 people in the parking lot. Several of the people were yelling at each other and pushing each other. He said as the crowd saw deputy personnel, they began separating. The security guards at the location were telling everyone to leave because the bar was closing (Papa' s Bar-BQ Pit).

He said they stayed in the parking lot in order to keep the peace and to prevent any more fighting among the group. Deputy Knight said he made announcements over his vehicles P.A. telling the group to disperse from the parking lot. He said he saw a group of four males hanging around the parking lot. He drove towards the group and made another announcement over his P.A. for them to leave. Deputy Knight said the three suspects turned their heads toward him and laughed. He said Suspect [redacted] waived his arm at him as if he wanted him (Knight) to leave him alone. He said Suspect Valenzuela bent over with his back toward the deputies and shook his butt. He said all three of the suspects looked back at them (deputies) and began laughing.

Deputy Knight said he again ordered the suspects to leave via his P.A., but they still refused to comply to his orders. He said he and Deputy [redacted] drove toward the group in order to detain them for refusing to leave the commercial center after being advised to leave (Violation of 9.12.020 © LMC). He said as they approached the suspects, [redacted] and [redacted] started to go in one direction (south) and Suspect Valenzuela started walking north toward the Stater Brothers Market. Deputy Knight said he told Suspect Valenzuela to stop and for him to walk back to their location. Suspect Valenzuela refused to comply to his commands and continued walking, at the same time waving his hand back them.

Deputy Knight said they followed Valenzuela to the sidewalk of Stater Brothers. He said Valenzuela turned around and quickly put his cell phone up to his ear. Deputy Knight said he told Valenzuela to put the phone away, but he refused. He said he could smell a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath and person. He said he also saw that Valenzuela's eyes were glassy and slightly bloodshot. He said Valenzuela spoke in a loud voice and Knight noticed his speech was slurred, possibly in violation of being drunk in public.

Deputy Knight said he attempted to detain Suspect Valenzuela. He said he reached up with his right hand and took a hold of Valenzuela's cell phone from his right hand. He said Valenzuela immediately struck him in the mouth with his right palm. He grabbed his right wrist with his right hand in order to control and to prevent Valenzuela from hitting him again. He said he pushed his right shoulder with his left hand forcing Valenzuela to face away from him. Valenzuela made his right hand into a fist and Knight could feel the muscles in Valenzuela's arm tighten. Deputy Knight said he told Valenzuela to stop fighting and to put his hands behind his back, but Valenzuela refused to comply.

Deputy Knight said he grabbed Valenzuela's right wrist with both of his hands in an attempt to place him in a rear wrist lock. He said he saw Deputy [redacted] grab Valenzuela's left arm. He said there were other deputies also assisting. He said he heard Deputy [redacted] tell everyone to take Valenzuela down to the ground. He said Suspect Valenzuela began twisting his torso back and forth in an effort to free himself. Suspect Valenzuela started yelling "Go ahead, try and take me down." He said Valenzuela continued to resist their efforts to control him by moving his arms violently, in an effort to break free from their grip.

Deputy Knight said as they pushed Valenzuela forward, he swept Valenzuela's right leg with his left leg, causing Valenzuela to go to the ground. He said as he hit the ground, He jammed his right ring finger into the concrete. While Valenzuela was laying on his stomach, he continued to violently pull with his right arm, in an attempt to free himself. Deputy Knight said they were able to overcome Valenzuela's resistance and took him into custody. Deputy Knight said Suspect Valenzuela started to tell him that his right arm was hurting and that it might be broken. Deputy Knight said Suspect Valenzuela was transported to Antelope Valley Hospital for treatment and booking approval. He said he reported the force he had used to Sergeant Dawson.

IAB Note: Refer to Exhibit A, for a copy of Deputy Knight's arrest report. Also refer to Deputy Knight's transcribed interview.

Deputy [redacted], #[redacted] was interviewed on January 3, 2009, at 0148 hours, by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jack Ramirez and Albert Maldonado. The interview was conducted at the Lancaster Sheriff's Station. Deputy [redacted] agreed to be interviewed without representation and the interview was audio recorded for review. The following is a summary of Deputy [redacted] perception of the incident.

Deputy [redacted] said he and his partner Deputy [redacted] responded to the parking lot of Papas Bar, in regards to an assistance request, persons fighting. While they were monitoring people leaving the parking lot, he saw Deputies Knight and [redacted] attempting to detain a male (Later identified as Suspect Valenzuela). He said Valenzuela was walking away from the deputies despite their orders telling him to stop. Deputy [redacted] said as Deputy Knight came within arm's distance of Suspect Valenzuela, Valenzuela suddenly turned around and swung his cell phone which was in his right hand. He said he saw Deputy Knight flinch backward. He said Suspect Valenzuela started to flail and swing his arms at Deputies Knight and [redacted].

Deputy [redacted] said Deputy Knight grabbed Suspect Valenzuela's left arm and he grabbed Valenzuela's right arm. He said he then grabbed Valenzuela's left arm and attempted to place it behind him in order to handcuff him. He said Valenzuela tensed his arms and began yelling and demanding that they (deputies) let him go. He said they were unable to place Valenzuela's arms behind his back due to his resistance. Deputy [redacted] said he and Deputy Knight verbally agreed to do a team take down of Suspect Valenzuela. He said Valenzuela heard them say they were going to take him down to the ground. Upon hearing this, Suspect Valenzuela began yelling "Yeah, try to take me down." Deputy [redacted] said Valenzuela refused to comply to their verbal commands to stop fighting. He said they took Valenzuela down to the ground and Valenzuela's chest made contact with the concrete. He said assisting deputies had a hold of Valenzuela's feet.

Deputy [redacted] said he pulled Valenzuela's left arm behind his back and Deputy [redacted] was able to handcuff him. He said Suspect Valenzuela continued to resist their efforts to control him. He said Suspect Valenzuela yelled out that his right arm was hurting. He said Valenzuela relaxed his body and allowed deputies to bring his right hand behind his back for handcuffing. He said Valenzuela was taken into custody without further resistance.

I.A.B. Note: Deputy [redacted] stated that in his report Suspect Valenzuela had shouted out that his left arm hurt. He said he just noticed the error while reviewing his supplemental report prior to this interview. He said his report should have said that Valenzuela had shouted that his right arm hurt (Refer to page #2, last line of his report). He explained that on the day of the incident he was tired. He said he had worked at least a twelve hour shift because of this incident. He said he failed to catch the mistake on June 7, 2008.

Deputy [redacted] said Valenzuela was transported to Antelope Valley Hospital where he was treated by Doctor Atilla Ulner. Suspect Valenzuela sustained a small bone chip in his right elbow. Doctor Ulner approved Suspect Valenzuela for booking and he was transported to Lancaster station. Deputy [redacted] said he reported his use of force to Sergeant Dawson. The interview was concluded at this point.

I.A.B. Note: Refer to Exhibit B, for a copy of Deputy [redacted] supplemental report. Also refer to Deputy [redacted] transcribed interview.

Deputy [redacted], #[redacted], was interviewed on June 7, 2008, at approximately 2335 hours, by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jack Ramirez and Irma Chevalier. The interview was conducted at the Lancaster Sheriff's Station. Deputy [redacted] agreed to be interviewed without representation and the interview was audio recorded for review. The following is a summary of what transpired.

Deputy [redacted] said he and Deputy Knight were going to attempt to detain Suspect Valenzuela in order to conduct a person drunk in public and a loitering investigation. He said they attempted to contact Suspect Valenzuela as he was walking away from them. Deputy [redacted] said he ordered Suspect Valenzuela to stop and to turn around. Suspect Valenzuela continued to walk away at the same time waving his arms back at them. Deputy [redacted] said he told Valenzuela again to stop, but he ignored them again and continued to walk away from them.

He said Deputy Knight grabbed Suspect Valenzuela's right arm. He said Valenzuela was holding a silver object (Later identified to be a cell phone). He said Suspect Valenzuela swung his right arm striking Deputy Knight in the mouth. Deputy [redacted] said he grabbed Suspect Valenzuela by both arms. He said other deputies assisted him. Deputy [redacted] said as he held onto Valenzuela's arms, he (Valenzuela) began to pull his arms out of his grip and attempted to walk away. Deputy [redacted] said Suspect Valenzuela then began to yell out take me to the ground, at the same time resisting deputies efforts to control him.

Deputy [redacted] said Deputies Knight and [redacted] conducted a team take down of Suspect Valenzuela. He said Deputy Knight ordered Valenzuela to place his hands behind his back but Valenzuela continued to resist by clenching his fists and pulling his arms away. Deputy [redacted] said he grabbed onto Valenzuela's wrists and placed the handcuffs on him. Deputy [redacted] said they ordered Suspect Valenzuela to place his hands behind his back several times during the incident, but he refused to comply. He said after the incident Deputy knight complained of pain coming from his right index finger. He said he also saw that Deputy Knight's mouth was red and swollen. He said he reported the force he used to Sergeant Dawson.

I.A.B. Note: Refer to Exhibit B, for a copy of Deputy [redacted] supplemental report. Also see Deputy [redacted] transcribed interview.

Deputy [redacted] #[redacted] was interviewed on June 7, 2008, by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jack Ramirez and Irma Chevalier. The interview was conducted at the Lancaster Sheriff's Station. Deputy [redacted] agreed to be interviewed without representation and the interview was audio recorded for review. The following is a summary of what transpired.

Deputy [redacted] said he was conducting a patrol check in the parking lot of Papas Bar. He said he saw a large fight involving approximately forty people. He said he requested assistance and additional deputies arrived on scene. While in the parking lot, Deputy [redacted] said he saw Deputy Knight detaining Suspect Valenzuela for being drunk in public. Deputy [redacted] said as he was driving toward Deputy Knight's location, he saw two males who were still standing in the parking lot after being told to leave via the Public Address System announcements. He said he contacted both males (Later identified as Suspect's [redacted] and [redacted] in regards to why they were not leaving the location after being told to.

Deputy [redacted] said [redacted] told him he was watching his friend (Valenzuela) who was being detained by Deputy Knight. Deputy [redacted] said he told [redacted] to leave the location because he was now in violation of loitering. Deputy [redacted] said while he was talking to [redacted], he heard an argument taking place behind him. He said he turned around and saw Deputy Knight and assisting units attempting to control Suspect Valenzuela who was on the ground. He said Valenzuela was thrashing his body around and resisting the deputies efforts to control him.

Deputy [redacted] said he ran over to assist Deputy Knight and the other deputies. He said Valenzuela was kicking his legs attempting to free himself. He said he grabbed onto Valenzuela's right ankle with his right hand in an effort to keep Valenzuela from kicking. He said he placed his right knee on top of Valenzuela's right foot so he would be unable to kick his leg. Deputy [redacted] said Valenzuela was taken into custody without further incident. He said he reported his force to Sergeant Dawson.

Deputy [redacted] said Suspect [redacted] was subsequently arrested for being drunk in public and loitering.

I.A.B. Note: Refer to Exhibit B, for Deputy [redacted] supplemental report. Also see his transcribed interview.

Deputy [redacted] was interviewed on January 26, 2009, by Sergeant Jack Ramirez of Internal Affairs Bureau. The interview was conducted at the Lancaster Sheriff's Station. Deputy [redacted] agreed to be interviewed without representation and the interview was audio recorded for review. The following is a summary of what transpired.

Deputy [redacted] said he responded to a backup request at Papas Bar. He said upon his arrival, he saw people running in the parking lot. He said he saw units with their ambers on in the parking lot next to the Stater Brothers Market. He said as he drove to their location and exited his patrol car, he saw deputies struggling with a male on the ground. He said the deputies were telling the male to put his hands behind his back. Deputy [redacted] said the male was kicking his legs and flailing his arms in an effort to get deputies to release him. He said the male continued to kick his legs so he [redacted] assisted by holding down his right leg so he could not kick the deputies. Deputy [redacted] said the suspect was taken into custody at that point. He said he did not see any of the deputies strike the suspect. He said he reported the force he used to Sergeant Dawson.

I.A.B. Note: Refer to Exhibit B, for Deputy [redacted] supplemental report. Also see his transcribed interview.

Deputy [redacted] was interviewed on January 25, 2009, by Sergeant Jack Ramirez of the Internal Affairs Bureau. The interview took place at the Lancaster Sheriff's Station. Deputy [redacted] agreed to be interviewed without representation and the interview was audio recorded for review. The following is a summary of what transpired.

Deputy [redacted] said he and his partner Deputy [redacted] responded to Papa's Barbeque Pit regarding a fight call. He said while at the location, deputies were dispersing the crowd. He said most of the crowd complied and started to leave as ordered. He said while they were waiting for the remainder of the crowd to leave, he saw deputies approaching a male (Later identified as Suspect Valenzuela) on foot. Deputy [redacted] said he drove their patrol car towards where Deputies Knight and [redacted] were. Deputy [redacted] said he exited his car and saw deputies using a firm grip on Valenzuela in an attempt to control him.

Deputy [redacted] said the suspect was resisting the deputies efforts to control him at the same time yelling, "You can't take me down." He said the suspect appeared to be under the influence of alcohol (smell of alcohol, slurred speech, blood shot eyes). Deputy [redacted] said the suspect continued to resist the deputies attempts to control him and continued yelling that the deputies could not take him down. Deputy [redacted] said he grabbed Valenzuela on his left arm (bicep area) with his right hand. He said an order was given to take Suspect Valenzuela to the ground in an effort to overcome his resistance.

He said Deputies Knight, [redacted] and himself guided the suspect to the ground. He said while the suspect was on the ground, he continued to resist their efforts to control him and place him under arrest. He said the suspect was subsequently taken into custody. He said he reported the force used to Sergeant Dawson. The interview was concluded.

I.A.B. Note: Refer to Exhibit B, for Deputy [redacted] supplemental report. Also see his transcribed interview.
